MEET AND ADOPT CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS—NAME BOARD OF GOVERNORS—MEETING WELL ATTENDED.

OFFICERS SELECTED AND HOUSE COMMITTEE AUTHORIZED TO FIT UP ROOMS.

The Garland Commercial Club met according to appointment at the Garland Amusement Hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting was well attended and considerable interest manifested. Chairman Mosiah Evans called the club to order and a motion was carried that the same officers appointed at the last meeting hold over—Mr Evans chairman and R. L. Bush, secretary. The minutes of last meeting were read by the secretary and approved. The committee on Constitution and Bylaws, consisting of W. H. Howe, president, J. A. Rostan and W. R. Vandell, reported and the constitution was read to the members by the president. A motion was carried that the constitution be read and adopted section by section. The president then proceeded to read the constitution and such changes that were deemed necessary were made. The Constitution and Bylaws consisting of a preamble and 20 sections were unanimously adopted.

A number of applications for membership were accepted by the club. Mosiah Evans, J. A. Rostan and J. C. Wheelon were chosen as members of the Board of Governors for the three-year term; for the two-year term—W. L. Grover, T. H. Edwards and W. P. Eaton and for the one-year term—W. H. Howe, E. D. Bacon and M. A. Boothe. A meeting of the Board of Governors was appointed for Tuesday afternoon at Judge Vanaunder's office for the purpose of organizing the club. The club took a recess for Ladies' Self-Culture Club.

A ladies' literary club has been organized in this city and holding regular meetings for some time past. But little has been said of the organization heretofore and feeling to encourage this laudable social circle, we took the liberty of interviewing some of its members and gleaned from them the following:

The circle is known as the Ladies' Self-Culture Club and is organized for a three-fold purpose, viz.: To improve the social condition, develop refinement and cultivate a taste for high-class literature. There are sixteen members at present and as the club is not designed to be an exclusive circle, others will soon unite.

After the literary program, which consists of reading the works of some up-to-date author and discussing current topics, refreshments are served and the afternoon pleasantly spent. The club meets every other Thursday afternoon at the home of one of its members. The last meeting was held at Mrs. H. C. Cutler's home and Mrs. Mosiah Evans will entertain the members at their next meeting, Feb. 22nd.

The Basket Ball

The most pleasant social event of the season was the Basket Ball given at the Amusement hall last Saturday night under the auspices of the Garland Primary officers, assisted by Mrs. W. P. Eaton. There was a good sized crowd in attendance and a number of the ladies brought unique and tastefully decorated baskets to be auctioned to the "highest cash bidders."

In one corner of the hall was a refreshment booth, neatly decorated with Chinese lanterns, where lemonade, candy, popcorn, etc., were disposed of and on the stage an auction booth where the baskets were sold to the anxious buyers. The jolly crowd in attendance danced to the music of the Kirkham orchestra till nearly the midnight hour, when Auctioneer T. H. Edwards began the sale of the dainty baskets and proved an expert at the auction table. Much enthusiasm was manifest and the twenty baskets offered for sale were readily purchased by customers who paid good prices for them. One basket sold for $3.35, a number for $1 and $2 and one very lucky bidder secured a few minutes and the initiation fees were handed to the secretary. Adjourned.

The Board of Governors met Tuesday at the above stated place and organized the Garland Commercial Club. Following are the officers selected:

Mosiah Evans, president.
John C. Wheelon, vice-president,
J. A. Rostan, secretary.
J. A. Wikom, Asst. secretary.
Walter P. Eaton, treasurer.

A number of committees were named and the House Committee was authorized to fit up rooms on the second floor of the Ritter Bros. Block. The secretary was also authorized to secure the necessary books and stationery.

The Constitution and By-laws are too lengthy to appear in our paper but will be printed in pamphlet form at an early date. The following is the preamble:

PREAMBLE

The purpose of this association shall be to advance by social intercourse and friendly exchange of views, the commercial prosperity and growth of Garland, Box Elder County and State of Utah; to promote uniformity in the custom and usage of producers, manufacturing and merchants; seek remunerative markets for home products; foster capital mutually interested in each other's welfare; encourage manufacturing; collect and disseminate valuable agricultural, manufacturing and commercial information; to do any and all things necessary to promote the object of the club.

Itching Piles

If you are acquainted with anyone who is troubled with this distressing ailment, you can do him no greater favor than to tell him to try Chamberlain's Salve. It gives instant relief. This salve also cures sore nipples, tetter and salt rheum. Price 25 cents. For sale by W. A. Ray.

Valentine and Beau Party.

The attendance at the Valentine and Beau party given at the Amusement Hall Wednesday night was quite small considering that the party was given on St. Valentine's night. The Presidency of the Primary association in the northern part of this city had charge of the affair and it was given to raise funds for that association. Valentines and lemonade were sold at the refreshment stand and a postoffice provided for the occasion. Each lady wore a neatly designed beau. Azar Evans attired in white cap, blue waist and knickerbockers, representing cupid, acted as rural free delivery boy. Many pretty valentines were among the collection and quite a few of the "mock" valentines were in evidence. The music was furnished by the Kirkham orchestra. The receipts of the social were $20.00.

Ward Conference.

A conference of the Garland ecclesiastical ward was held in this city Sunday last. Among the visitors were Pres. Oleen N. Stohl, C. Elias Jensen and J. D. Call. The forenoon session was devoted to Sunday School exercises and reports were also given by officers of the various organizations. A class from the Garland North Sunday School rendered a class exercise. In the afternoon some reports were given by the various officers of organizations and the following were honorably released from their respective positions. A. R. Capener as superintendent of the Garland Sunday School and his counselors, O. L. Wilcox and Urael Rose; Thos. E. King as superintendent of Garland North Sunday School and his counselors, A. H. Gleason and Wm. King; Agnes Fife as a Primary counselor and Adela Herick as an aid, both of the Garland North organization; F. D. Welling as second counselor to Bishop W. L. Grover. Each were tendered a vote of thanks for past labors.

During the afternoon session a beautiful duet was rendered, entitled, "Keep On Believing," by Mrs. Marie Wing and R. L. Bush. Remarks were also made by Pres. Oleen N. Stohl and C. Elias Jensen. The officers and authorities of the church were presented and sustained. Some changes were made in the Garland ward. Jos. Jensen was chosen to succeed F. D. Welling as second counselor to Bp. Grover and both Sunday Schools were reorganized as follows:

GARLAND SUNDAY SCHOOL—Superintendent, Berdit Smith; 1st counselor, Urael Rose; 2nd counselor, (not yet filled). GARLAND NORTH SUNDAY SCHOOL—Superintendent, Wm. King; 1st counselor, John E. Manning; 2nd counselor, Jas. F. Devey. The conference was well attended.

A Merry Time.

(COMMUNICATED.)

The entertaining house gathering given at the Wheelon home by Miss Ada Fowler in remembrance of Miss Sarah's birthday, was a decided success.

The house was liberally decorated with hearts of beautiful colors and designs, and all present had an enjoyable time. The evening was commenced with music. Several guests declared their lungs needed strengthening so they all indulged in Sherlock Holmes. Then came the grand guessing contest of which Miss Mabel Cowan and Burt Burns were the winners receiving a beautiful valentine and a string of dolls. Guests then drew beautiful ribbon bows of different colors and repaired to the dining room where a delicious, refreshing repast was tastefully served. Each one received the honor of carving his or her own piece of the beautiful birthday cake, Miss Violet Carter luckily drawing the ring and Edd Rodgers the cash.

A pleasant game of high five was played away into the "wee wee" hours, Miss Violet Carter and Burt Burns being the winners. Each guest then went to their homes wishing the young hostesses a long and happy life.

Those present were: Miss Leah Bush, Miss Hazel Evans, Miss Violet Carter, Miss Mabel Cowan, Mr. Burt and Joseph Burns, Mr. Edd Rodgers and others.

Horticultural Meeting.

A Garland district horticultural meeting, under the auspices of the Farmers' Proactive and Commercial Assn., was held at the Garland hall Thursday at 2 p. m.

The visitors present were: Prof. Northrop, Prof. Ball, secretary of the Horticultural society, C. A. Hick-enlooper and J. Edward Taylor, member of the State Board of Horticultural, County Tree Inspector W. O. Knudson and W. S. Hansen.

Oscar Harris was the chairman. A good sized audience was present, representatives being here from most all of the surrounding districts.

The first speaker was Prof. Northrop, who discussed the culture of apples, preparation of the soil prior to planting, mode of planting, ages of trees to select, diseases, pruning, etc.

Prof. Ball said: The Bear River valley was one of the best places in the state for winter apples. Devoted his entire lecture to insects and spraying, using neat charts to illustrate his ideas.

Prof. Hick-enlooper dwelt on the subject of trimming and packing of apples for some length of time and Mr. J. Edward Taylor ventilated the subject of marketing same.

The meeting was very interesting from beginning to end and much good will certainly come from these gatherings.

A notice was given of a meeting of the F. P. and C. Assn. at Garland on the return of Prof. Holmgren from Washington. It was stated that the object of this organization was mutual benefit and not to antagonize The Utah Sugar Co.

After the adjournment the visitors were driven to Fielding and are the guests of W. S. Hansen.

A meeting was held at Fielding the same evening.
